

Commun Website Cookies Policy

Introduction

Commun website <https://commun.com> uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our website.

What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer to help users navigate their websites efficiently and perform certain functions. You can learn more about cookies at <http://www.allaboutcookies.org/>.

Consent

Certain cookies do not require your consent (e.g., strictly necessary cookies), while some of them (analytical cookies) will only be enabled on our website if you provide your consent.

What cookies do we use?

We use the following cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies. These cookies are essential and are necessary for the website to function correctly. We need to use these cookies in order to provide you access to the website as well as the functionality provided on the website. If you set your browser settings to block all cookies (including strictly necessary cookies), you may not be able to access all or parts of the website or services provided via the website.
- Analytical cookies. These cookies help us to collect aggregated and statistical information about how users use the website. Analytics cookies provide us with information about the number of visitors of the website, country of visitors, average time spent on the website, most and least visited pages, whether the users experience any errors etc. These cookies do not collect any information that could identify you and are only used to help us to improve the website and develop a more user-friendly design and to improve the platform. All information these cookies collect is aggregated and therefore anonymous.
- Third-party widgets and plugins. We partner with third parties to provide you with connections to certain social networks (such as Facebook, Twitter, and Telegram) and to provide you with additional features (such as YouTube and Vimeo). By using the website or engaging with third-party plugins and widgets, such third parties may place “session” or “persistent” cookies, or similar technologies, on your browser. These technologies may provide the third parties information about your visit so that they can present you with advertisements for services which may be of interest to you. This helps us track the effectiveness of our marketing efforts. The use of these cookies is subject to the third party's own cookie policies which you can find and access on their website.
